

5 July 1972

MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

On July 5, 1972, at 5:50 p.m. I received a phone call from the Acting Director of the FBI, L. Patrick Gray. He said that the pressures on him to continue the investigation were great and unless he had a document from me to the effect that their (FBI) investigation was endangering National Security, he would have to go ahead with the investigation of Dahlberg and Daguerre. He had talked to John Dean. I said I could not give him an immediate answer but would get one to him by 1000 on 6 July. He said that that would be agreeable.
